AMERICAN PATENT DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

MOVIELINK, LLC,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 07-605-JJF

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

It is hereby stipulated and agreed to by and between the undersigned counsel for all Parties to this action as follows:

1. Definition of "Confidential Information." "Confidential Information," which may be designated as provided in paragraph 5 below, is defined as follows: trade secrets, product designs, manufacturing processes, non-public business or financial information (e.g., customer and/or supplier lists, sales and profits information, sales projections), confidential research, development and commercial information, testing and test results, and confidential or private personal information.

2. Use Limitations. All Confidential Information produced in the course of discovery proceedings herein shall be used only for the purpose of preparing for and conducting this action (including appeals) and not for any business, competitive, governmental, research, development, or other purpose whatsoever.

2.1 Limitations on Disclosure of Confidential Information. Confidential Information shall not be given, shown, or made available or communicated in any way to anyone except persons specified in paragraph 6 below who have read and are bound by the terms of this Protective Order, and to whom it is necessary that such Confidential Information be given or shown for the purposes permitted under this paragraph.

2.2 Advice to Client Based on Confidential Information.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Protective Order shall bar or otherwise restrict any litigation attorney herein from rendering litigation advice to his/her client, and in the course thereof, referring to or relying upon the attorney's examination of designated information; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and in otherwise communicating with his/her client, the attorney shall not disclose the contents or the source of any designated information which the client is not otherwise authorized to receive.

3. Scope of Protection/Disclosure of Confidential Information in Other Proceedings. This Protective Order governs the handling of all Confidential Information, including documents, testimony, and other information, including all copies, excerpts, and summaries thereof, produced, given, or filed during discovery and other proceedings in this action, including Confidential Information produced, given, or filed prior to the date of this Protective Order.

3.1 If any party to another legal proceeding, or a court or an administrative agency, through discovery, subpoenas, orders or demands production of Confidential Information, the party receiving such demand for Confidential Information shall promptly, and before producing Confidential Information to such other party, court, or administrative agency, notify (1) The requesting party, court, or administrative agency of this Protective Order; and (2) The party whose Confidential Information is being sought.

3.1.1 The party whose Confidential Information is being sought shall have the obligation of defending against such subpoena, order or demand, and the person or party receiving the subpoena, order or demand shall be entitled to comply with it except to the extent the producing party is successful in obtaining an order modifying or quashing the subpoena, order or demand.

4. Confidential Information Produced by Third Parties. This Protective Order shall apply to the parties to this action, and also to any other person producing or disclosing Confidential Information in this action who agrees or is ordered to be bound by this Protective Order. Accordingly, as used herein, the term "person" includes both the named parties in this civil action, and third parties who have agreed or been ordered to be bound by this Protective Order. If, in the course of this action, information is sought from a third party which would require such person to disclose and/or produce Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only information, such third party may obtain the protections of this Protective Order by agreeing in writing to produce information pursuant to this Protective Order and to be bound by it. No further order of this Court shall be necessary to extend the protections of this Order to third parties.

5. Designation of Confidential Information. Any person who produces, gives, or files Confidential Information may designate information as Confidential Information if it meets the definition stated in paragraph 1.

5.1 Designated "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only." A party that in good faith believes any particular Confidential Information is sufficiently sensitive or of a nature that its disclosure would unfairly or unnecessarily reveal competitive information to an individual plaintiff or defendant, or to a director, officer, or employee thereof, may designate that Confidential Information as "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only." Information which is designated "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall be used by the parties to this action solely for the purposes set forth in paragraph 2 above, and disclosed only to persons specified in paragraphs 6.1 .1 and 6.1.3 through 6.1.6 below.

5.2 Designation of Documents. Documents may be designated as Confidential Information by stamping "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" on each page prior to production.

5.3 Designation of Deposition Testimony. Deposition testimony may be designated, in whole or in part, as Confidential Information by oral designation on the record, in which case the person making the designation shall instruct the Court Reporter to bind the "Confidential" and "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" portions of the deposition transcript separately and to stamp the words "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only," as appropriate, on each transcript page so designated.

5.4 Subsequent Designations. Documents, deposition transcripts, and other information may be designated as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" pursuant to 5.3 above, after they have been produced without having been so designated only under the following conditions:

5.4.1 Persons to whom such documents, testimony, or other information, have been disclosed must be advised in writing, with affirmative acknowledgment of receipt in writing, of the new designation;

5.4.2 The new designation applies only as of the date and time of receipt of notice by each person notified;

5.4.3 Persons to whom such documents, testimony, or other information have been disclosed shall not be responsible for any disclosure to third parties occurring before receipt of notice described in paragraph 5.4.1;

5.4.4 Persons to whom such documents, testimony, or other information have been disclosed must be provided with another copy of the documents, deposition testimony, or other information that bears the designation;

5.4.5 Subsequent confidentiality designations of deposition testimony not designated during the course of the deposition testimony shall be made within the time specified for review and signing of the transcript; and

5.4.6 Any inadvertent disclosure of unmarked Confidential Information shall not preclude the disclosing party from later claiming a right to confidentiality with respect to the inadvertently disclosed and subsequently designated Confidential Information.

6. Persons to Whom Confidential Information May be Disclosed.

6.1 "Confidential" Information. Except as otherwise provided by this Protective Order, information designated as "Confidential" shall be disclosed only to:

6.1.1 Outside counsel for the parties in this action, one in-house counsel who is assisting outside counsel, and clerical, paralegal, and other staff employed by such counsel, in addition to any independent experts or independent consultants who are assisting counsel in the prosecution or defense of this action;

6.1.2 Such officers, directors, or employees of the parties, as counsel, in good faith, requires to provide assistance in the prosecution or defense of this action, and for no other purpose; provided, however, that before access is given, each such officer, director, or employee shall have agreed in writing to be bound by this Protective Order by signing

the form attached hereto as Exhibit A and advised that the violation of the terms of this Protective Order (by use of the Confidential Information for business purposes or in any other impermissible manner) may constitute contempt of Court.

6.1.3 The Court and court personnel;

6.1.4 Any other Person as to whom the producing Person agrees in writing;

6.1.5 Witnesses at deposition or trial qualified under paragraphs 6.4.1 and 6.4.2; and

6.1.6 Court reporters employed in connection with this action.

6.2 "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" Information. Except as otherwise provided by this Protective Order, information designated as "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall be disclosed only to Persons described in paragraph 6.1.1 and 6.1.3 through 6.1.6 above who have been ordered or agreed to be bound by this Protective Order. An agreement to be bound may be satisfied by signing the form attached as Exhibit A upon reasonable demand of the disclosing party. However, no person shall be permitted to see "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" information who is involved in the drafting or prosecution of patent applications which are directed to methods or systems for delivering video-on-demand.

6.3 Disclosure of Confidential Transcripts to the Deponent. Deposition transcripts containing Confidential Information may be shown to the deponent for the purpose of correction, but the deponent may not retain a copy of the transcript unless (s)he agrees to be bound by this Protective Order by signing a copy of the acknowledgment form attached as Exhibit A.

6.4 Limited Exceptions:

6.4.1 Persons Previously Having Access to Confidential Information. A producing party's Confidential Information to which a present or former employee, consultant or agent has had access during the period of his employment or association with the producing party may be disclosed to that present or former employee, consultant or agent.

6.4.2 Authors/Addressees. This Protective Order shall not apply to the disclosure of documents, or the contents thereof, to persons who were the authors or addressees of those documents or who are shown as having received copies.

6.4.3 Witnesses. If a document designated as Confidential Information refers to the conduct or affairs of a potential witness, the parties' attorneys may discuss such conduct or affairs with the witness without revealing that such a document exists, its author, or its source.

6.4.4 Certain Information Not Subject to Scope of Order. The restrictions of this Protective Order shall not apply to information which (a) was, is, or becomes public knowledge, not in violation of this Protective Order, or (b) was or is acquired from a third party possessing such information and having no obligation of confidentiality to the designating party, or (c) the receiving party can establish was in its rightful and lawful possession at the time of disclosure or was developed independently by the receiving party without the use of Confidential Information.

7. Resolution of Disputes. Whenever a party objects to the treatment of a document or transcript as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only," as defined in paragraphs 1 and 5 herein, it shall, in writing or on the record in any proceeding herein, so inform the party seeking "Confidential" treatment. The failure of a party to object in a timely manner shall not constitute a waiver. The party opposing such treatment may thereafter apply to the Court by motion for a ruling that the document or transcript shall not be treated as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" in the manner described in paragraphs 1 and 6 herein. Such motion shall be made within a reasonable period of time after notice of the objection to a "Confidential" designation is given. Upon such application, the party asserting confidentiality bears the burden to establish same. Until the Court enters an Order changing the designation of the document or transcript which is to be the subject of the application, it shall be afforded the "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" treatment described in paragraphs 1 and 6 herein.

8. Disposition of Confidential Information Following Conclusion of Litigation. At the conclusion of this litigation (i.e., upon its final dismissal), all copies of all documents or transcripts designated "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only," and any copies thereof, shall either be destroyed or returned to the party or person producing same. In addition, all summaries or other materials containing or disclosing information contained in "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" documents or transcripts, and all copies thereof, shall be either destroyed or returned to the party furnishing the same.

8.1 Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, a party may maintain a complete set of pleadings, deposition transcripts and exhibits, and trial transcripts and exhibits following conclusion of this litigation.

9. Continuing Obligation, Retention of Jurisdiction. This Order shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this litigation, and the Court shall retain limited jurisdiction over the parties hereto for purposes of enforcing any obligations imposed hereby.

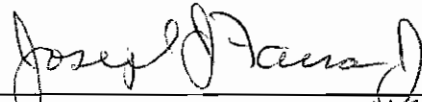

10. Expert Reports. A testifying expert's draft reports, notes, outlines, and any other writings leading up to his final report(s) in this case are exempt from discovery. In addition, all communications with, and all materials generated by, a testifying expert with respect to his work on this case are exempt from discovery unless they contain (1) data or information relied upon by the expert in forming his opinion(s), or (2) data or information relevant to his opinion(s) that he considered and determined not to rely upon in forming his opinion(s). By way of example only, communications or materials which contain counsel's opinions or mental impressions are exempt from discovery, but data or information communicated by counsel to the expert which is considered or relied upon by the expert in forming his opinion(s) is not exempt from discovery. Communications and/or materials which contain both exempt and non-exempt information may be produced in redacted form so as to disclose only non-exempt information. The expert must produce (1) his final report, and (2) all communications/materials to the extent they contain non-exempt information.
